

1. Application performs I/O operation on Sea mountpoint

2. The call is intercepted by Sea

3. Sea performs the I/O on the most appropriate storage location, based on a storage hierarchy

4. Optionally, Sea can prefetch, flush and evict data from storage asynchronously

